There was a moderate rise in cotton early in the day, owing to dry weather in Texas, heavy rains in Alabama and Georgia, where they are not wanted predictions of unfavorable weather conditions for the next 36 hours, bad crop reports and covering of shorts, but Liverpool was unexpectedly weak and there was a general disposition to take profits, which together with rather free Southern selling, a m f reign a line and mere plast lead sell ng for shorts account caused a reaction, final prices being slightly lower for the day. Many regard the reaction of the past two days as only natural after the recent sharp advance. There is little disposition to fake the short side for the crop news is generally bad, especially from Texas, and the Houston Foot says that the condition in that State has declined 15 per cent within a month, while over the entire belt, it states, there has been a falling off in the condition of fully to per cent. The short interest, too, has been increased of late and the state of the cotton goods trade 1: distinctly better than recently.

Swims Away From Governors Island. William Ayeling, a private in the Second United States Cavalry, due to serve two years and a half in Fort Leavenworth for descrition, stole away from the corporal of the guard while working with the pris-oners' gang on Governors Island yesterday, and is supposed to have escaped by a swim to the Brooklyn shore or to some passing craft.

Ayeling formerly lived in Long Island City. He enlisted under the name of George Harvey and was 34 years old. He joined the Second Cavalry Jan. 18 1895, and deserted on Aug. 25 of the same year. On April 22, 1898, he went back to his regiment and surrendered, saying that he was willing to take his medicine if they'd let him ing to take his medicine if they'd let him go at the Spaniards with his old regiment. He was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, but the President's proclamation set aside short sentences of the sort.

Ayeling went with his regiment to Camp Wheeler at Huntsville, Ala., spent several months in the hospital there and got a furlough, which ended on Feb. 21, 1899. Nothing more was heard of him until July 15 of this year, when he went to Major Wheeler, a recruiting officer in Brooklyn, and said he wanted to enlist. He was recognized, put under arrest and sentenced to hard labor for two and a half years.

Ayeling learned of his sentence on Tuesday night. Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock he was sent to work in the coal sheds on the southeast side of the island. The corporal of the guard missed him and the authorities heard later that a man had been seen swimming across Buttermilk channel and that a tug had picked the swimmer up.

SAYS LIEUT. WEISS KISSED HER Separation.

Mrs. Caroline Weiss has brought a suit for separation against her husband, William Weiss, who is a member of the Seventy-first Regiment and who went to Cuba in the war with Spain as a Lieutenant. His wife alleges ill-treatment and non-support. She asserts that in July last, when they lived at 59 Division street, Brooklyn, her husband gave up the house and informed her that he was tired of married life. She was forced to store the furniture and return to her mother's the furniture and return to her mother's home in Manhattan.

Her friend, Cassie McCabe, of 284 South Fourth street testified that she saw Weiss slap his wife's face in the street. On another occasion, Miss McCabe said, he kissed her in his wife's presence and attempted to appear affectionate toward her in order to appear affectionate toward her in order to annoy his wife. Weiss denies all of the annoy his wife. Weiss denies all of the "R. Rivers" of Buffalo Dies Suddenly Here. A middle aged man, who had registered as R. Rivers, Buffalo, became ill in the restaurant of the Putnam House at Fourth avenue and Twenty-sixth street yesterday and died with his head resting in the lap of a young woman who had left her luncheon to go to his assistance. Nothing was found to identify the man and his body was taken to the Morgue. An autopsy will be made on it today.
